FORTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
ASSOCIATION FOR THE RELIEF OF RESPECTABLE
AGED INDIGENT FEMALES.

IN presenting their forty-eighth Annual Report, the Board of Managers would recognize with gratitude the continued favor of God upon the institution under their care, during another year.

The charity represented by the Board, though unobtrusive in form, takes nevertheless a worthy place among the various enterprises of Christian beneficence. Our divine Redeemer, when on earth, was wont to minister to human woe and suffering; and we doubt not that among those whom he thus relieved were many aged and infirm ones; and it is not mere fancy to suppose that He who, in the hour of His agony on the Cross, should be thoughtful of her who bore Him, and commend her to the care of a disciple, often felt sympathy and extended a kindly hand to others of her sex, who, with the burthen of poverty, felt the added burthen of increasing years.

During the year which has closed, death has not been unmindful of his work among the inmates of our Asylum. Seven of them have passed away from earth. Their names, ages, and periods of residence in the Asylum are as follows:

AMELIA SKATTS,	aged 80,	inmate 6 year
SARAH SCOVILL,	" 71,	" 8 "
ELIZABETH STREETER,	" 86,	" 10 "
ELIZABETH GETTY,	" 84,	" 15 "
JULIA TAYLOR,	" 76,	" 6 "
MARY JUBIN,	" 73,	" 10 "
MARY SCOTT,	" 68,	" 5 "

Since our last report, eight persons have been admitted to the Asylum. The circumstances connected with the cases of two of their number are worthy of mention. They had been applicants for admission to the institution, and as such had been approved by the Board, and were awaiting the opportunity to avail themselves of a home within its walls when death should create the necessary vacancy. For thirty long years these aged women had travelled the journey of life together, living in common, and supporting themselves as best they could by the small earnings of the needle. One of them was feeble, and to her necessities the other ministered with a constant and abiding affection. At last their resource of work failed them, and their means of support was cut off. Without the ability to pay their small rent, they were turned from beneath the roof which sheltered them into the open street. In this hour of extreme trial they were found by a friend, and measures at once were taken to bring them into the Asylum. Here they have found a home which will shelter them for the future.

The present number of inmates in the institution is ninety-three.

Applications for admission are being constantly refused, in consequence of the limited accommodations which our building affords. These applications at the present time are especially numerous and urgent. It is hard, indeed, to close the door against so many of the daughters of sorrow,—many of them alone, and homeless, in the autumn of life. It is reasonable to suppose that, with the increasing growth of our city, these applications will continue to multiply. The subject of a new and enlarged building has been mentioned in several of our preceding reports, and has for a considerable period been the subject of earnest solicitude with the Board. Measures were taken last year to bring the matter before the public, and an appeal was made for aid in its behalf, to which a gratifying response was beginning to be made, when the troubles of the country interfered. In the present condition of the times, it seems to the Board proper to suspend the work of soliciting funds for the object we have in view. The Board deeply regret the necessity of this step, and the more especially, because the reason which seems to make it necessary is also the reason which renders the work of enlargement the more imperative.

But very many to whom, under other circumstances, we might confidently look for aid, have been compelled to submit to the pressure of adverse fortune, while others of our friends have been called upon to give largely of their substance to the maintenance of the Government in its hour of trial. We cannot fail to realize the sacredness of the obligations which have thus been met, even though it has diverted means which otherwise might have flowed into our Treasury. We look, however, earnestly forward to the time when a brighter day shall dawn upon our land, and peace be restored to our borders, and then beneath those brighter skies we shall hope to prosecute to complete success our cherished plan of a new and enlarged building. Meanwhile the funds which have been subscribed and paid in have been deposited in the New York Life Insurance and Trust Company, where they are drawing interest.

The Board take occasion again to renew their expression of obligation to Drs. Cooper, Bibbins, and Watson for their continued and gratuitous services during the year among the inmates of our Asylum.

Divine service has been regularly attended on the Sabbath in the chapel; and it is a grateful office here to acknowledge the aid we have received in these services from many of the pastors of our city. They have thus illustrated anew the truth, that to the poor the gospel is preached.

In reference to our Treasurer's Report, it is proper to state that, although many of our regular subscribers are at present in Europe, their names remain in the list, thus creating an apparent discrepancy in the figures.

Honorable and grateful mention should be made of the Auxiliary Society of this Institution, organized in December, 1823, which continues to provide out-door pensioners with garments.

In closing this report, the Board would again commend this charity to the beneficent sympathies of the public. God setteth the solitary in families, and where from any cause the family tie has been severed, we would seek to imitate the divine goodness, by providing, as far as in us lies, for the objects of our charity, an Asylum which shall be to them a home here upon earth, until they pass to the Father's house above.

NOTE.—By a recent vote of the Board of Managers, the time for holding the Anniversary Meeting was changed from the last Thursday in November to the first Thursday in December.
